PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Dear Brethren in the Lord, and of Shiloh Association.

It has pleased God to brnig us together from different parts of His Vineyard where we are toiling amid discouragements and countless disadvantages. But through these adverse surroundings God has guided us and has taken care of us, has made us see joy and beauty in His service and has given us courage to stand for christian principles. I have sought of Him to know whether we are right and have been made satisfied that we are, I am resolved therefore to go ahead—not in my name but in His name and strength. "Let us in malice be children but in understanding be men." Let us stand for something that will cause our people to see and know that we are making the world better by our living in it. Let us realize with the prophet Isaiah that "He has sent me to bind up the broken hearted and to proclaim liberty to the captives." We have done well in the past—let us do more in the future, as we certainly see greater needs. I make the following recommendotions: That we abandon the present three cents plan of raising revenue and adopt a broader system for missionary work. Let our church letter be arranged so as to show the churches contributions for the following objects: Education of young men aspiring to the ministry. Superated Ministers; Orphans of the State; Foreign Missions; Associational Expenses.

Now brethren let us go on record laying a foundation upon which our childred can safely stand and build. All of which I submit for your prayerful consideration.

W. H. Boyd, President.
